

CLOSING OUT

AT COST

$10,000 Shoe Stock

BIG 4 SHOES, RED CROSS SHOES

We are going out of the retail business. Men's, Women's and Children's Shoes, all new, stylish, up-to-date, first quality goods, no old stock, all fresh, direct from factories, and all at first cost. This is no fake sale, but a straight, honest deal. That we are doing just what we say we are, come and let us show you thru, and be convinced. No other house can, and no other house will, give you such bargains. Great bargains for every one.

Big 4 Shoe Store

625 CHURCH STREET

THE SPA CREAMERY.

Cor. Ninth Avenue and Cedar Street.

We have just completed our screens and our fans. This makes our place the most desirable in the city. We have also installed another Soda Fountain enabling us to render better service to every body. We solicit private and picnic orders and will fill them with promptness.

VISIT THE SPA. (Spaw.)

P ONE, MAIN 4496-L.

C. T. COFFEY, Proprietor.

J. B. KENNEDY,

LIVERY, BOARD AND SALE STABLE

Fine Rigs of Every Description.

PHONE, Main 4156.

440 THIRD AVENUE, NORTH,

NASHVILLE, TENNESSEE.

Have You Catarrh?
Do Your Eyes Trouble You?
Do You Need Glasses?

OR HAVE YOU ANY TROUBLE WITH YOUR

EYES, EARS, NOSE
or THROAT?

IF SO, CONSULT

Dr. C. V. Roman,
SPECIALIST,

ROOMS 2 and 3 NASHVILLE
NAPIER COURT. TENN.

If you want to buy,
If you want to sell,
If you want to rent,
SEE

T. CLAY MOORE,

NOTARY PUBLIC
Pythian Temple,

Phone 967.

428 1/2 Fifth Avenue North.

Mrs. James Thompson, of 1012 Dixon street, entertained last Wednesday in honor of Mr. M. Bell, of Louisville. Ices and dainty cakes were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Phineas Baker, who have been residing on Eleventh avenue, North, with her mother, Mrs. Marshall Thompson, are now house-keeping in East Nashville.

Little Miss Mercy Leah Buckner, the six-year old niece of Mr. Geo. O. Boyd, of the livery firm of Boyd & Battle, arrived, unaccompanied, in the city last Monday evening from New Orleans, where she had resided ever since she and her mother had arrived there as refugees from the San Francisco fire and earthquake. She will remain indefinitely with her uncle and aunt at 320 Eighth avenue, North.

Mrs. D. S. Kenney, of Washington, is visiting her brother, Mr. P. D. Streater, of 6 Murrel street.

Mr. and Mrs. James Scruggs, of 1723 Patterson street, are the proud parents of a boy baby.

Mrs. Ellen D. Franklin and son have returned home after spending two weeks in Robertson and Montgomery counties.

Mrs. Annie Buford and her sons, of South Eighth street, arrived home Sunday evening, after a stay of two weeks in Sumner County.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Turner, of Cedar Hill, spent Labor Day with their son, Mr. Ernest Matlock, of South Eighth street.

Misses Helen Wherry and Matilda V. Williams have returned from a two weeks' stay in Keysburg, Ky., where they were the guests of Miss Gertrude Wherry. Before leaving they were highly entertained by Mrs. Dora Wherry and daughter.

Mrs. Irene Doxey Robinson, of Third avenue, North, has returned home after quite a delightful visit to her brother, Mr. F. B. Doxey, of Hendersonville, Ky., and other friends of Evansville, Ind.

Mrs. Nannie Poole Pearson, of Glencliff, Tenn., was the guest of Miss Alice L. Doxey and sister last Wednesday and Thursday.

Rev. J. S. Swift, of Tullahoma, Tenn., will leave with the Nashville delegation on Monday evening for Washington.

The official program of the twenty-seventh annual session of the National Baptist Convention is out of press. The Convention proper will be held in the Metropolitan Baptist Church, Rev. Mr. W. D. Norman, D. D., pastor. The Woman's Auxiliary will be held in the Mt. Vernon Baptist Church, September 11-16.

Mrs. E. Jackson, who is secretary to Prof. W. G. Hynes, left Monday for Norfolk, Va. She will visit the Exposition at Jamestown before returning to the city.

Rev. G. Wm. Ward, a member of the Publishing Board, who is now pastoring in Indianapolis, spent two days in Nashville last week. He came here to attend the funeral of Mr. Frierson, whose remains were shipped here from Chattanooga for burial. Rev. Mr. Ward could not remain here longer than one day, as he stated he had to return and prepare for the trip to Washington, D. C.

Miss Emma Smith, Master G. F. Scott and little Miss Suburban Scott, of Sixth avenue, North, who have been visiting in Clarksville, Tenn., for quite a stay, returned home this week.

Mrs. Henry Bell, of Seventh avenue, North, is visiting her sister at Hygeia Springs.

Mrs. Eugene Davis and little son, Master Napoleon, have returned home after quite a visit to Gallatin, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Tinsley Smiley and family, of 1026 Fourteenth avenue, N., arrived in the city Monday night after spending ten days in Cincinnati. They visited the zoological gardens and many other places of interest.

Miss L. E. Buchanan, of Sixth avenue, North, who has been visiting in Murfreesboro, Tenn., has returned home.

Mr. Henry Osborn, of Gallatin, was visiting in the city this week.

Despite the disagreeable weather of last Monday night, quite a gathering witnessed the Labor Day night entertainment given at Salem A. M. E. Church.

Mrs. Caruthers and little daughter, of Clarksville, Tenn., who were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Scott, of Sixth avenue, North, last week, have returned home.

Miss Emily R. Ewin spent Sunday in Springhill.

Mr. R. A. Ewin, superintendent of the Fifth Avenue Institute, is slightly indisposed this week.

Mrs. M. L. Gordon, of Nunnally, Tenn., Mrs. Pearl Graven Merriwether and Mrs. Gluster Graven Bell, of St. Louis, Mo., en route to Lexington, Ky., to visit their grandmother.

Mr. James Yearling, of Kansas City, Mo., was the guest of the Musical Club at its outing at Greenwood Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Yearling are stopping at 2020 Jefferson street.

Miss E. D. Wells, one of the public school teachers, of Clarksville, Miss Lula Keese, also of Clarksville, and Rev. J. H. Jones, of Lane Tabernacle, visited the Globe office this week.

Miss Mary Battle, who has been out of the city, has returned.

Prof. J. K. Hughes, of Franklin, is in the city attending the Knights of Tabor held their Grand Lodge session in this city this week.

Mr. S. H. Killebrew left the city Sunday night for Chicago, where he will join his wife. They will spend about two weeks in that city, and from there they will stop over at Clarksville for a while.

Miss L. A. Carden, of 735 Ninth avenue, South, is confined to her bed this week.

Dr. W. D. Chappelle left the city Wednesday night for Chicago and Colorado, where he will attend the Annual Conference.

Messrs. J. L. Cockrill and Wm. D. Chappelle, Jr., will leave in a few days to visit Chicago, Washington and the Jamestown Exposition.

Miss C. D. Chappelle is home again after quite an extensive trip through the South this summer.

Miss Lillian Hill, after spending three weeks visiting Chicago, Washington, New York and the Jamestown Exposition, is again at her post of duty.

Mrs. Lula Chappelle Nelson and little daughter, Thelma, are visiting her parents in the city.

St. Paul Choir is arranging for a laughable farce comedy on Monday night, September 16, at St. Paul M. E. Church. Beautiful music and monologue will be rendered before the play. So don't forget the day and date.

Miss Hattie Perkins is indisposed this week.

Miss Eva Galloway, one of the prominent stenographers at the Napier Court, left the city last Sunday morning for Louisville, where she will spend a few weeks among friends.

Mr. George S. White, of this city, and a first-class female impersonator, has signed to play this season with the Southern Comedy Co., the original "Honolulu Coon." Mr. White left the city last Wednesday morning for St. Louis, where he will join the troupe.

Miss Maud S. Johnson and her brother, James, who have been visiting relatives in Chicago for the last month, have returned.

Mrs. Mary Winston and her daughter, Ella, and Laura Jefferson have returned from Hartsville, Tenn.

Mr. Robert Jenkins, of 1004 Eleventh avenue, has just returned with his little daughter, Miss Minnie, from Chicago. They visited their uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Cage.

Mrs. Sam Ratcliffe, of Decatur, Ala., is visiting her sisters, the Misses Franklin, of 78 Claiborne street.

Miss Ida Mai Reid, of 1024 Eleventh avenue, North, spent last Sunday with friends at Murfreesboro.

Mrs. Tabitha Carter, of Lebanon, is visiting the city this week, the guest of Mrs. E. J. Guthrie, of 45 Trimble street.

Miss Nellie Jamison, Carrie Allen and Callie Perkins dined with Mrs. G. M. Perkins last Sunday.

Mrs. Sophia Dodson, of 1734 Jefferson street, is very ill.

Mrs. Frank Bright, who formerly resided in this city returned to her home in St. Louis, after spending several weeks here.

Mrs. Jennie Cheatham Lee, whose masterly direction of the department of music at the Tuskegee Normal and Industrial Institute and superb training of the choir at that famed institution, has brought to her the deserved encomiums of all who have visited the school, left the city this week to resume her work.

Mr. William Thompson, of Twelfth avenue, North, is spending a few weeks in Chicago.

Mrs. Sarah Gray and Mr. Frank Henry were quietly married Sunday evening, September 1, 1907, at 7:30 o'clock, at the home of the bride, 319 Eleventh avenue, North. Rev. C. H. Clark officiating.

Miss Anna L. Mayberry, who, during her vacation was employed as secretary of the Women's Mission Laundry, at 4361 Moffitt avenue, St. Louis, will return to the city about September 21st. Miss Mayberry will enter school about the 23rd.

Miss Maggie West, who is visiting her aunt, Mrs. C. F. Pierce in Paris, Tex., is improving and will remain in Texas until next summer.

Mrs. Eliza Bailey, of St. Louis, who came to the city to enter her children in school, has returned home.

Mrs. Kate Brown, of Patterson street, is spending a few weeks in St. Louis visiting her son and daughter.

Cards were received in the city announcing the celebration of the China wedding of Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Conner, of Waco, Tex., on August 24. More than two hundred dollars worth of handsome presents were received. Mrs. Conner was formerly Miss Mattie H. Jackson of this city.

Mr. George Martin, of 1300 1/2 Hamilton street, has a remarkable hen. She came off the nest in February with fourteen chickens and began laying again on August 25th.

Prof. Frank E. Dawson has returned to the city after spending all the summer at the watering places of the North along the Great Lakes. He will begin his school work Monday.

Mr. R. L. Redmond, of Indianapolis, Miss., has returned to the city to resume his studies in Meharry Medical College.

Mrs. Lillie L. DeWees, of Ament street, has returned from a two weeks' vacation in Lebanon.

Paschal Webster, of Chicago, who spent several days in the city, left Sunday for Louisville to attend the encampment of the Uniform Rank Knights of Pythias.

Capt. J. Milton Easterling and Col. Frank Henderson, of Chattanooga, spent a few hours in the city Sunday. They were en route to the encampment of the Uniform Rank, Knights of Pythias at Louisville.

The Globe was in error when it stated recently that Miss Mary Kane Hill had returned from a trip to the Jamestown Exposition. The statement should have been that Miss Hill left for a trip to Norfolk, Washington and other cities East.

The new school for colored children, located on Pearl street near the N. C. & St. L. Ry., is nearing completion. It is to be called the Hadley School.

The Globe is in receipt of a souvenir post card from Mr. Jasper Tappan Phillips, who is rustication on the summit of the Cumberland Mountains. Mr. Phillips expresses his pleasure in reading "your newsy paper." He will probably return to the city in a few days.

Miss Addie Lee Streater, who has been spending her summer vacation visiting her mother and brother, Mr. P. D. Streater, of 6 Murrel street, left this week to resume her work at Tuskegee Institute.

Prof. J. B. Batte, principal of Carter School, is attending the biennial session of the Supreme Lodge Knights of Pythias at Louisville.

Dr. J. P. Crawford, principal of Knowles School and Grand Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, is attending the meeting of the Supreme Lodge at Louisville this week. Dr. Crawford has been elected to represent the Grand Lodge of this state regularly since that body was organized, and stands high in the Supreme Councils.

Miss Willie Hobbs Page, who is residing on Fourteenth avenue, North, with Mr. Eugene T. Page and his mother, has been slightly ill this week but has fully recovered.

Miss Minnie Hunter, of 1309 Hynes street, has resumed her work at the Tennessee School for the Blind.

Miss Ella Hendry has returned from Iowa, where she spent her summer vacation visiting her sister.

Miss Emma Joe Cockrill is attending the biennial session of the Supreme Court of Calanthe, at Louisville this week. Miss Cockrill is one of the supreme officers, having been elected to the position at the last meeting, previous to the present one, held in Pittsburgh, Pa. While it is not known whether Miss Cockrill is a candidate for re-election, her many friends in the Order hope that she will be retained in her present position.

Mr. A. W. Fite, of Fourteenth avenue, North, Deputy Grand Chancellor of the Knights of Pythias, for Middle Tennessee, and one of the most active members of the Order in the state, is attending the meeting of the Supreme Lodge, Knights of Pythias, at Louisville.

Mr. J. Thomas Turner spent last week in Knoxville attending the Grand Lodge, U. B. F.

Miss Willie Andrews has returned from Chicago, where she has been for the past month visiting her sister, Mrs. St. Clair Hudgens.

Miss Carrie Mildred Bryant has returned from her summer vacation to take up her work in the public schools. Miss Bryant spent her vacation in Alabama, visiting her old home at Selma and several other cities.

Miss Jennie Childress, of Laurel street, has been slightly indisposed this week.

Mrs. Charles Boger, of 1618 Jo Johnson avenue, who has been visiting at Decatur, Ala., for several weeks, returned to the city Monday.

Prof. George E. Washington, of the city schools, is attending the meeting of the Supreme Lodge Knights of Pythias at Louisville.

Mrs. J. B. Kennedy, the wife of the popular livery stable man, left the city last week for Indianapolis. She will remain North for two months, visiting the principal cities in Indiana.

Mr. William Crudup, of Chicago, is here for a brief visit. Mr. Crudup is a prominent Sunday school worker, being superintendent of the Ebenezer Baptist Sunday School, one of the largest in Chicago.

There were ten visitors at Mt. Olive Sunday school Sunday morning. All but three had a word to say to the school. Mrs. Carrie Young, the acting superintendent, made them all welcome.

Prof. W. G. Hynes and his expert operator, Mr. Wm. Posey, will leave Sunday for Washington, D. C., where they will exhibit during the National Baptist Convention. They go from Washington to Jamestown to run a show for two weeks and then back toward Tennessee.

Mr. Lovell Landers, the chief mailing clerk of the Baptist Publishing House, will go to Washington Sunday morning. He leaves over the L. and N., going ahead to get the Publishing Board's exhibit in place for the Convention.

Mrs. W. A. Plummer and daughter, DeWitt Plummer, of Cairo, Ill., are visiting their relatives in this city. Mrs. Plummer is the daughter of Mrs. Shorter, of 1803 Church street.